

Introducing My Child

Information and Ideas for a Successful School Year

Student's Name, Grade (or Class)
My Strengths, Talents, and Interests This is information about my child's personal and academic strengths. It includes information about my child's interests and brief descriptions of my child's talents. (This is often when my child shines?)
Challenges and Areas for Support This information is about areas or times when my child struggles.
Helpful Strategies and Accommodations Here is a brief summary of my child's IEP or 504 (if applicable). I have also included some strategies and accommodations from past teachers and professionals that have helped support my child's learning experience.
At Home This information is about activities and current levels of self-management and executive functions we practice at home. I have also included areas we find challenging and/or are excited to see growth in.
Quick Tips These are helpful tips and some quick thoughts on what can be dysregulating for my child.
